

Call for Papers

Richmond Macroeconomics Workshop April 17–18, 2026

Host: The Department of Economics at Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU)

Location: VCU School of Business, Richmond, Virginia

Deadline to submit: October 15, 2025

Send to: richmondmacro.vcu@gmail.com

The goal of this workshop is to provide a forum for both junior and senior economists around the world to share frontier research in quantitative macroeconomics and foster academic networking among participants.

Submissions of both theoretical and applied work are invited. Given the focus of this workshop, preference will be given to quantitative macroeconomics topics at the intersection of human capital investment and family economics.

We are delighted to have two keynote speakers:

- Matthias Doepke (London School of Economics)
- Dirk Krueger (University of Pennsylvania)

The submission deadline is October 15, 2025. Interested authors are invited to send a complete or working paper in PDF format to richmondmacro.vcu@gmail.com.

Lunch and dinner will be provided during the workshop, and there is no registration fee; however, participants are responsible for their own travel expenses.

Acceptance decisions will be communicated by November 15, 2025.
